Requests for audio visual and electrical equipment should be made at the time of booking and requested on the booking form.

CCL provides internet access at Castle Cavendish Enterprise Centre and makes every effort to maintain connectivity but cannot be held responsible for failure of service.

CCL will not accept responsibility for loss of or damage to property brought onto the premises due to negligence, omission or fault of the Centre's staff or agents.

On confirmation of the booking the Hirer agrees to replace, or pay to the Centre the cost of making good any damage caused to the premises or equipment by the Hirer or their delegates, and in the case of equipment to cover the cost of a temporary hire agreement entered into for the period of repair or replacement of the damaged equipment. In addition to this, an administration fee of £25 will be incurred.

All property left on the premises is at the owner's risk and CCL accepts no liability for damage or loss.

CCL reserves the right to cancel any booking by provision of a minimum of two weeks' written notice.

Meetings must not exceed the period of hire and, in any event, be finished in time for all attendees to vacate the building by 7.00 pm (6.00 pm on Friday)

CCL do not guarantee that there will be on-site car parking facilities for event attendees.

The Hirer or Facilitator should draw attendees' attention to the action to be taken in the event of a fire alarm as detailed in the room and in the Housekeeping notes provided.

In an emergency, all attendees should vacate the building as per written instructions and report to the Fire Warden on leaving the building.

All bookings must be made on an official booking form that will be sent to you when you have made your provisional booking. Bookings will be held until a signed form is received. If the room booking form is not received within 14 days the booking will be cancelled.
